

MARTY CHRISTIAN

FELT LOVE BEFORE

Louisiana Blues musician Marty Christian is releasing his sixth album of originals and Acoustic Blues: Felt Love Before. Now residing in New Orleans, the once guitarist for Louisiana Blues greats Henry Gray and Carol Fran, has hit his stride, with songs written from the Crescent City groove of Felt Love Before to the Delta feel of Blue Jean Smile and the Muscle Shoals Soul of Ain't Got No Right. These compositions, together with homages to Muddy Waters, Mississippi John Hurt, Charlie Patton and others, make this Christian's most complete CD yet.

MARTY CHRISTIAN - BIO

Marty Christian plays what he calls Bluesicana—Americana soaked in the blues, marinated in soul, and served up with a side of swamp pop and Southern truth. His guitar style and songwriting carry the fingerprints of a life spent chasing sound—from the rustbelt of Cleveland, OH, through the electric blues of Austin, TX, into the Zydeco-soaked dancehalls of Lafayette, and now, the funky streets of New Orleans.
